1960 Kamehameha Schools graduate. Higher education; University of Hawaii and Chaminade College.

While with the Honolulu Police Department, I eventually formed and organized the first union known as SHOPO. We went from police fraternities to police unions. Establishing SHOPO allowed for the first time, meetings with management on an equal basis, improved wages, and working conditions.

After my stroke in 1978 and no longer a uniformed police officer, I was assigned to a civilian position. As a civilian with the HPD, I joined HGEA, became a shop steward and assisted civilian employees with their complaints against the department; circumstances were reversed.

King Kalakaua sent my Grandpa; Isaac Hakuole Harbottle and Brother James to Japan. It's said that the King wanted his Kingdom well versed about other governments.

My Father Isaac Hakuole Harbottle, Jr. was sent to Necker Island to colonize it as part of the North West Hawaiian Islands. He lived on the island in a tent along with his pet dog. He returned to Hawaii joined the Honolulu Fire Department and retired as a Battalion Chief.

My belief is-and always will be; wrong is wrong; regardless with what hat you wear the truth remains the truth.

I know that I am the best man for this task given my rich heritage, knowledge, my ability to see both sides of a concern, weigh it, and draw a fair conclusion.

Pono is always the watchword.
